

RESOURCE KIT KENORA, ONTARIO

Created as part of the “Environmental Health, Equity and Law:
Making the Links” Project

INTRODUCTION

This Resource Kit for Kenora, Ontario was created as part of the “Environmental Health, Equity, and Law: Making the Links” Project (the “Making the Links” project).

This Resource Kit is a compilation of environmental health and legal information relevant to environmental health issues identified as areas of concern in Kenora, Ontario. All of the below listed resources include a link or citation, and the contents will be added to and updated as needed. While the Resource was developed especially for Kenora, Ontario, much of the content is applicable and relevant to other communities.

Disclaimer: The contents of this Resource Kit are accurate as of the day it is published. It is meant as a source of information, and none of what follows should be taken as legal advice.

WHO IS CELA?

The Canadian Environmental Law Association (“CELA”) is a non profit public interest organization, established in 1970. CELA uses existing laws to protect the environment advocates for environmental law reform. CELA’s work focuses on four main environmental issues – these are water sustainability, green energy, sustainable land use, and pollution and health, with a particular focus on children’s health.

CELA is also a legal aid clinic and acts at tribunal hearings and in courts on behalf of low-income individuals, citizen groups, and not-for-profit organizations that otherwise would not be able to afford legal assistance. As a legal aid clinic, CELA is funded by Legal Aid Ontario and is part of a larger system of community legal clinics in Ontario.

You can access CELA’s website by clicking: <http://www.cela.ca/> If you would like to contact CELA for summary advice or information, you can contact the articling student for a preliminary intake interview at 416-960-2284, ext.216 or via email at articling@cela.ca.

WHO IS EHI CANADA?

The Environmental Health Institute of Canada (“EHI Canada”) is a charitable foundation with a vision for enhancing and coordinating efforts at various levels to learn about, prevent, and manage chronic environment-associated illnesses, as well as to understand their underlying mechanisms. EHI Canada was founded by healthcare professionals who recognized that protecting Ontarians and Canadians from environmental hazards requires a collaborative effort with many key players. In partnership with such key players, EHI Canada intends to implement ongoing programs to address the multiple research, educational, and front-line clinical and community environmental health needs.

You can access EHI Canada's website by clicking: <http://ehicanada.com/index.htm> You can contact EHI Canada by email: info@ehicanada.ca

WHAT IS THE LAW FOUNDATION OF ONTARIO?

The Law Foundation of Ontario (LFO) is a grant-making organization that promotes and enhances justice for all Ontarians. To learn more about the LFO click:

WHAT IS THE “MAKING THE LINKS” PROJECT?

The “Making the Links” project was a three year interdisciplinary outreach program led by the Canadian Environmental Law Association (CELA) and the Environmental Health Institute of Canada (EHI Canada) with funding from the Law Foundation of Ontario (LFO). The project focused on environmental law and access to justice issues in six Ontario communities. Each community identified – Kenora, Hamilton, Brantford, Cornwall, Windsor and Sarnia – possessed a high pollution burden and incidence of environmental health issues, as well as a high percentage of low income and vulnerable populations.

During the course of the project, our activities were focused on the objectives of increasing community environmental health, promoting engagement in the legal system; enhancing community knowledge of environmental laws and available legal tools; facilitating the sharing of information between the health and legal sectors; and improving the capacity of frontline environmental groups and legal and health service providers to protect their constituents from environmental threats to health.

All of the presentations and resources created throughout the course of the three year Making the Links Project will be posted on our website by early January 2012:

FAQs & DIRECTORY

1. How do I find existing information in my community regarding environmental health?

Information is being gathered about environmental health in Kenora. Please refer to the attached presentations and reports to learn more about environmental health in your community.

Topics covered in this Resource Kit for Kenora include: health and work environments, public participation in environmental decision making, children's health, community profiles and much more.

An additional resource prepared in the course of the Making the Links project provides a summary of several environmental health issues and opportunities for public engagement in the environmental decision-making process. You can access the Toolkit online: <http://www.cela.ca/collections/justice/making-links-environmental-health-equity-and-law>

2. How do I find out about air pollution in my community?

There are a number of ways you can find out more information about air pollution in your community. Please refer to the presentation listed below, titled "Healthy Home and Communities: Learn about environmental issues in your home and how to participate in environmental decisions in your community" for information about accessing pollution data in your community.

The following links may also be helpful:

3. How can I get involved in environmental decision making in my community?

There are a number of simple ways in which you can get involved in environmental decision making in Kenora, without spending a lot of money.

Please refer to the presentation listed below, titled “Environmental Health Law and Regulation: Opportunities for Engagement” for information about how to access information or participate in environmental decision-making under various federal and provincial statutes which are relevant to public health. Please also see the presentation listed below, titled “Healthy Home and Communities: Learn about environmental issues in your home and how to participate in environmental decisions in your community” for information about how to use the Environmental Bill of Rights (EBR) and the EBR Registry to learn more about what is going on in your community and to get involved in the process. Additionally, this presentation outlines a number of other ways to get involved, including engaging with the freedom of information process, the environmental assessment process, and municipal planning decisions.

4. How can I find out who else is interested in the issues of environmental health, environmental justice, and poverty in my community?

There are many active organizations working in the Kenora area interested in the issues of environmental health and justice. We are currently creating a referral list of such organizations which will be available to the public in the future.

5. What are the key environmental issues regarding environmental health in my community?

Following consultation with community members about issues of local concern, the following were identified as environmental health concerns in Kenora:

- Water Quality/Toxics: main concerns pertain to historic mercury contamination in the English-Wabigoon River System. The contamination has had significant impacts on First Nations communities, including Grassy Narrows and Wabauskang.
- Industrial Air Emissions: large number of high-emissions facilities in the area.
- Brownfields: significant number of contaminated sites.
- Food Security: concerns about access to local food and creation of ‘food deserts’.

6. How can I gather more information regarding environmental health and environmental justice in Kenora?

This resource kit has been created to allow you easy access to information about environmental health in Kenora. This kit will continue to be updated and is available on line: <http://www.cela.ca/collections/justice/making-links-environmental-health-equity-and-law-kenora>

You may also want to see the Toolkit prepared in the course of the Making the Links project: <http://www.cela.ca/collections/justice/making-links-environmental-health-equity-and-law-kenora> The toolkit provides a summary of environmental health issues and law, and outlines opportunities for public participation.
